HORTICULTURAL AND INDUSTRIAL SECTIONS

DIRECTIONS FOR COMPETITORS

1. The Committees have the right to arrange such classes in the Horticultural Sections as they so desire.
2. Competitors shall submit a list of the number of classes in which he or she intends to compete to the Secretary or the Convenor of any section not later than 9.30 am on the day of the Show.
3. All articles for competition must be delivered to the Convenor of the appropriate section in the Show Tent by 9.30 am on the day of the show. Judging will commence at 10 am. Competition labels, supplied on application to the Secretary or the Convenor of each section, must be carefully attached to each article with the name of the Competition Class on the outside. Exhibits must conform to the number and quantity detailed for the class in the schedule.
4. All exhibits of cut flowers must be arranged in vases supplied by the Society.
5. All articles for competition must be bona fide property of the exhibitor and have been for TWO months in his/her possession. For the purpose of the rule, the garden of every competitor shall be open to inspection by members of the Flower Show Committee at any time during two months before the show, on the day of the show, and for ten days thereafter.
6. Qualified judges, who have no interest in the competition, shall be appointed by the Committees and their decision shall be final. The judges shall have the power to withhold or to modify any of the prizes, if, in their opinion, the articles are considered unworthy, and to disqualify exhibits which do not conform to the details in the schedule. When the judges are determining the prizes, no person shall be present except those specially appointed by the Committee.
7. All complaints to be lodged in writing with the Secretary by 5.00pm on the day of the Show.
8. No exhibits may be removed from the Industrial and Flower Show until 3.00pm on the day of the Show. Exhibits remaining on show at 3.45pm will be considered available for public auction in aid of Society funds. Such donation of entries is much appreciated.
